

SHALOM ALEICHEM AND L'SHANAH TOVAH.....HAPPY AND HEALTHY NEW YEAR - 5770 - TO ALL, AND HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THE WORLD

Welcome everyone, to Congregation Ner Shalom's webpage...a work in progress...but still, full of informative tidbits about our temple membership and what we have to offer. For those who are new, or are looking for a congregation, Ner Shalom is located in the hustle and bustle of Northern Virginia, Prince William County, approximately 35 miles south of our nation's capital, Washington, DC. We are a small congregation (just about 100 families) but offer as much as most of our larger sister congregations; more on that later. We have a rabbi, our own building (we just recently paid off our mortgage), and a beautiful piece of Prince William County property on which we can expand and grow.

Our congregation offers everything that others do. We conduct Shabbat services every Friday night, have Torah study on Saturdays, and, of course, also have services for the plethora of Jewish Holidays starting with Rosh Hashanah and going throughout the Jewish calendar year. Our vibrant congregation has an outstanding religious school program (Kindergarten through Confirmation); junior and senior youth groups, a very active Sisterhood, a reinvigorated brotherhood, and this year will start a 20s-30s group and empty nest Renaissance Group. The Rabbi also has an active adult education class, and adult B'nai Mitzvah program.

Ner Shalom is a very participative congregation; our rabbi enjoys having congregants participate in services. Approximately fifty-percent of our members are interfaith families. Non-Jewish partners are encouraged to participate in congregation activities where Jewish law (Halacha) allows.
